John McCain Wants to Gamble With Our Social Security...

John McCain started receiving Social Security when he turned 65. But now he has a risky scheme to privatize Social Security—threatening our benefits.

... He Can Afford to Lose It. We Can't.

Raise Taxes, Cut Benefits

John McCain says he won't raise taxes. But when it comes to Social Security, he says, "all options are on the table." That means he's considering increasing the retirement age, raising taxes and cutting benefits for hardworking Americans.<sup>5</sup>

Privatize Social Security

For over a decade, John McCain has fought to privatize Social Security—he even voted for George Bush's failed plan. He also voted to raid the Social Security fund to pay down the national debt. Now he says he's going to try again as president.<sup>6</sup>
